

The Roseabella

Ann Street ran parallel with Bethnal Green Road, London in 1792

One early morning in the month of May
One early morning in the month of May
I thought I heard our captain say
"The Roseabella will sail today"

Chorus

O, we're going on board the Roseabella
we're going on board the Roseabella
We're going on board, right down to the board
The saucy Roseabella

[Farewell ye ladies of London town]
We hate to leave but we're going on down
Aboard the Roseabella

[Pretty Nancy she is my love true]
She could handle this bully crew
Aboard the Roseabella

[Nancy brought whisky for all the crew]
She wanted to see which man would do
Aboard the Roseabella

[Them Ann Street girls do make me grieve]
They spent me money and made me leave
Aboard the Roseabella

<more>

[Oh, Big Maria's no good for me]
She took me money, sent me to sea
Aboard the Roseabella

[She's a deep-water ship with a deep-water crew]
You can hug the coast, but we're damned if we do
Aboard the Roseabella

[To round Cape Horn takes many a day]
Around Cape Horn is a mighty long way
Aboard the Roseabella
